36. NO WARRANTY BY CITY AGAINST INFRINGEMENTS: The Supplier represents and warrants to the City that: (i) the Supplier shall provide the City good and indefeasible title to the deliverables and (ii) the deliverables supplied by the Supplier in accordance with the specifications in the Contract will not infringe, directly or contributorily, any patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, or any other intellectual property right of any kind of any third party; that no claims have been made by any person or entity with respect to the ownership or operation of the deliverables and the Supplier does not know of any valid basis for any such claims. The Supplier shall, at its sole expense, defend, indemnify, and hold the City harmless from and against all liability, damages, and costs (including court costs and reasonable fees of attorneys and other professionals) arising out of or resulting from: (i) any claim that the City's exercise anywhere in the world of the rights associated with the City's ownership, and if applicable, license rights, and its use of the deliverables infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party; or (ii) the Supplier's breach of any of Supplier's representations or warranties stated in this Contract. In the event of any such claim, the City shall have the right to monitor such claim or at its option engage its own separate counsel to act as co-counsel on the City's behalf. Further, Supplier agrees that the City's specifications regarding the deliverables shall in no way diminish Supplier's warranties or obligations under this paragraph and the City makes no warranty that the production, development, or delivery of such deliverables will not impact such warranties of Supplier.

37. CONFIDENTIALITY: In order to provide the deliverables to the City, Supplier may require access to certain of the City's and/or its licensors' confidential information (including inventions, employee information, trade secrets, confidential know-how, confidential business information, and other information which the City or its licensors consider confidential) (collectively, "Confidential Information"). The Supplier agrees to use protective measures no less stringent than the Supplier uses within its own business to protect its own most valuable information, which protective measures shall under all circumstances be at least reasonable measures to ensure the continued confidentiality of the Confidential Information.

38. Intentionally left blank.

39. PUBLICATIONS: All published material and written reports submitted under the Contract must be originally developed material unless otherwise specifically provided in the Contract. When material not originally developed is included in a report in any form, the source shall be identified.

40. ADVERTISING: The Supplier shall not advertise or publish, without the City's prior consent, the fact that the City has entered into the Contract, except to the extent required by law.

41. NO CONTINGENT FEES: The Supplier warrants that no person or selling agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure the Contract upon any agreement or understanding for commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee, excepting bona fide employees of bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Supplier for the purpose of securing business. For breach or violation of this warranty, the City shall have the right, in addition to any other remedy available, to cancel the Contract without liability and to deduct from any amounts owed to the Supplier, or otherwise recover, the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

42. GRATUITIES: The City may, by written notice to the Supplier, cancel the Contract without liability if it is determined by the City that gratuities were offered or given by the Supplier or any agent or representative of the Supplier to any officer or employee of the City of Denton with a view toward securing the Contract or securing favorable treatment with respect to the awarding or amending or the making of any determinations with respect to the performing of such contract. In the event the Contract is canceled by the City pursuant to this provision, the City shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies, to recover or withhold the amount of the cost incurred by the Supplier in providing such gratuities.

43. PROHIBITION AGAINST PERSONAL INTEREST IN CONTRACTS: No officer, employee, independent consultant, or elected official of the City who is involved in the development, evaluation, or decision-making process of the performance of any solicitation shall have a financial interest, direct or indirect, in the Contract resulting from that solicitation. Any willful violation of this section shall constitute impropriety in office, and any officer or employee guilty thereof shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Any violation of this provision, with the knowledge, expressed or implied, of the Supplier shall render the Contract voidable by the City. The Supplier shall complete and submit the City's Conflict of Interest Questionnaire (Attachment B).

44. INDEPENDENT SUPPLIER: The Contract shall not be construed as creating an employer/employee relationship, a partnership, or a joint venture. The Supplier's services shall be those of an independent supplier. The Supplier agrees and understands that the Contract does not grant any rights or privileges established for employees of the City of Denton, Texas for the purposes of income tax, withholding, social security taxes, vacation or sick leave benefits, worker's compensation, or any other City employee benefit. The City shall not have supervision and control of the Supplier or any employee of the Supplier, and it is expressly understood that Supplier shall perform the services hereunder according to the attached specifications at the general direction of the City Manager of the City of Denton, Texas, or his designee under this agreement.

45. ASSIGNMENT-DELEGATION: The Contract shall be binding upon and ensure to the benefit of the City and the Supplier and their respective successors and assigns, provided however, that no right or interest in the Contract shall be assigned and no obligation shall be delegated by the Supplier without the prior written consent of the City.

Any attempted assignment or delegation by the Supplier shall be void unless made in conformity with this paragraph. The Contract is not intended to confer rights or benefits on any person, firm or entity not a party hereto; it being the intention of the parties that there are no third party beneficiaries to the Contract.

46. WAIVER: No claim or right arising out of a breach of the Contract can be discharged in whole or in part by a waiver or renunciation of the claim or right unless the waiver or renunciation is supported by consideration and is in writing signed by the aggrieved party. No waiver by either the Supplier or the City of any one or more events of default by the other party shall operate as, or be construed to be, a permanent waiver of any rights or obligations under the Contract, or an express or implied acceptance of any other existing or future default or defaults, whether of a similar or different character.

47. MODIFICATIONS: The Contract can be modified or amended only by a writing signed by both parties. No pre-printed or similar terms on any the Supplier invoice, order or other document shall have any force or effect to change the terms, covenants, and conditions of the Contract.

48. INTERPRETATION: The Contract is intended by the parties as a final, complete and exclusive statement of the terms of their agreement. No course of prior dealing between the parties or course of performance or usage of the trade shall be relevant to supplement or explain any term used in the Contract. Although the Contract may have been substantially drafted by one party, it is the intent of the parties that all provisions be construed in a manner to be fair to both parties, reading no provisions more strictly against one party or the other. Whenever a term defined by the Uniform Commercial Code, as enacted by the State of Texas, is used in the Contract, the UCC definition shall control, unless otherwise defined in the Contract.

49. DISPUTE RESOLUTION:

A. If a dispute arises out of or relates to the Contract, or the breach thereof, the parties agree to negotiate prior to prosecuting a suit for damages. However, this section does not prohibit the filing of a lawsuit to toll the running of a statute of limitations or to seek injunctive relief. Either party may make a written request for a meeting between representatives of each party within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the request or such later period as agreed by the parties. Each party shall include, at a minimum, one (1) senior level individual with decision-making authority regarding the dispute. The purpose of this and any subsequent meeting is to attempt in good faith to negotiate a resolution of the dispute. If, within thirty (30) calendar days after such meeting, the parties have not succeeded in negotiating a resolution of the dispute, they will proceed directly to mediation as described below. Negotiation may be waived by a written agreement signed by both parties, in which event the parties may proceed directly to mediation as described below.

B. If the efforts to resolve the dispute through negotiation fail, or the parties waive the negotiation process, the parties may select, within thirty (30) calendar days, a mediator trained in mediation skills to assist with resolution of the dispute. Should they choose this option; the City and the Supplier agree to act in good faith in the selection of the mediator and to give consideration to qualified individuals nominated to act as mediator. Nothing in the Contract prevents the parties from relying on the skills of a person who is trained in the subject matter of the dispute or a contract interpretation expert. If the parties fail to agree on a mediator within thirty (30) calendar days of initiation of the mediation process, the mediator shall be selected by the Denton County Alternative Dispute Resolution Program (DCAP). The parties agree to participate in mediation in good faith for up to thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the first mediation session. The City and the Supplier will share the mediator's fees equally and the parties will bear their own costs of participation such as fees for any consultants or attorneys they may utilize to represent them or otherwise assist them in the mediation.

50. JURISDICTION AND VENUE: The Contract is made under and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, including, when applicable, the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Texas, V.T.C.A., Bus. & Comm. Code, Chapter 1, excluding any rule or principle that would refer to and apply the substantive law of another state or jurisdiction. All issues arising from this Contract shall be resolved in the courts of Denton County, Texas and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of such courts. The foregoing, however, shall not be construed or interpreted to limit or restrict the right or ability of the City to seek and secure injunctive relief from any competent authority as contemplated herein.

EXHIBIT 4

51. INVALIDITY: The invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability of any provision of the Contract shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other portion or provision of the Contract. Any void provision shall be deemed severed from the Contract and the balance of the Contract shall be construed and enforced as if the Contract did not contain the particular portion or provision held to be void. The parties further agree to reform the Contract to replace any stricken provision with a valid provision that comes as close as possible to the intent of the stricken provision. The provisions of this section shall not prevent this entire Contract from being void should a provision which is the essence of the Contract be determined to be void.

On-Line Forecasting Service Access and Use Agreement

THIS AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made between Pattern Recognition Technologies, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company") and the City of Denton, a Texas Municipal Corporation with principal offices located in Denton, Texas (the "Customer"), collectively the Party or Parties. Under the terms and conditions set out below, the Company agrees to provide on-line forecasting services which, at a minimum, shall include the features listed or described in Schedule A of the Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "OnLine Service"). The Customer agrees to pay a monthly fee to the Company for the OnLine Service.

1. Access to OnLine Service. The Customer's access to the OnLine Service will be via (1) any standard World Wide Web browser software, (2) an optional Microsoft EXCEL interface provided by the Company and (3) an optional FTP site provided by the Company. The Company will assign a unique username and password to the Customer for gaining access to the Online Service. It is the Customer's responsibility to safeguard and protect its assigned username and password from disclosure or use by others. Upon request by the Customer, the Company will assign a replacement username or password to assist Customer in controlling access. The Customer will promptly notify the Company if it has reason to believe its account is being improperly accessed or used by others.
2. Use of OnLine Service.
 - a. Authorized Users. Under the non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to access the Online Service received by the Customer under this Agreement, all authorized employees of the Customer may make Permitted Use of the OnLine Service (pursuant to the definition and conditions of Subsection 2.b, Permitted Uses).
 - b. Permitted Uses. Permitted Use means to access the OnLine Service and to display information derived from the OnLine Service on a computer or terminal screen, to download and store such information in memory in machine-readable form indefinitely, and to print copies of such information. The information obtained from the OnLine Service may be used for any legitimate purpose which does not compete in the open market with the OnLine Service.
 - c. Prohibited Uses. Except as authorized under Subsection 2.b, Permitted Uses, the Customer may not display, copy, download, store, reproduce, transmit, distribute, resell or otherwise commercially exploit any part of the OnLine Service, including any data or information derived from the OnLine Service, in any format or through any technology or media now existing or hereafter developed but excluding any third party data or information essentially available to the Customer in the same or similar format from another generally accessible source. The Customer is specifically prohibited from disclosing to third parties any part of the OnLine Service, data or information that may be considered proprietary to the Company. The Customer is prohibited from disseminating any part of the OnLine Service, data or information in a manner that potentially would usurp the market for the OnLine Service.

EXHIBIT 4

3. Price & Payment.

- a. OnLine Service Charges. Service Charges entitling the Customer to unlimited access and use of the OnLine Service are described in Schedule A.
- b. Payment & Late Charges. Service Charges shall be invoiced every three months ("Billing Period") at the beginning of each upcoming Billing Period, to be paid by the Customer within thirty (30) days from receipt ("Due Date"). Any amount not paid by the Due Date shall be considered past due and subject to interest at the rate of the Prompt Payment Interest per Texas statute. If Customer fails to pay the Service Charges within forty-five (45) days, then this Agreement may, at Company's option, be suspended or terminated.
- c. Changes to Service Charges. The Company may change the Service Charges, at its sole discretion, upon providing sixty (60) days' notice to Customer in advance of the next term renewal if a renewal clause is provided in Section 9.a. Customer's continued use of the OnLine Service after the effective date of any price change will constitute Customer's acceptance of this change. If the Customer does not wish to accept the proposed price change, the Customer may exercise its termination rights under Section 9, Term & Termination.

4. Certain Proprietary Rights.

- a. Copyrights. The Company warrants and represents that all right, title and interest (including all copyrights and other intellectual property rights) in the OnLine Service belong exclusively to the Company. Except for Customer's use, as defined in this Agreement, of the information furnished by the OnLine Service, Customer agrees that this Agreement confers no rights on Customer to the copyrights and other intellectual property of Company in the OnLine Service.
- b. Certain Trade Secrets. The OnLine Service is provided to the Customer in machine-readable form and contains certain trade secrets and proprietary information of the Company. The Customer agrees not to disassemble, decompile, or reverse engineer any of the OnLine Service features. The Customer will at all times use due diligence to safeguard and protect all OnLine Service related information.

5. Force Majeure. Each Party is excused from any failure, default, or delay in performance of responsibilities under this Agreement for any cause beyond its reasonable control. Such causes include, without limitation, fires, floods, storms, earthquakes, civil disturbances, disruption of telecommunications, transportation, extended power outages, governmental action, computer viruses, and failure of any information services shown to be a critical component of the Online Service and provided by third parties to the Company. Nothing herein enlarges any warranty or diminishes any disclaimer provided in Section 6, Warranties.

6. Warranties.

- a. Non-Infringement Warranty. The Company represents and warrants to the best of its knowledge and belief that it has the rights needed to enter into this Agreement and that Permitted Use by the Customer of features in the OnLine Service will not infringe or misappropriate any United States copyright, trademark, patent, or the trade secrets of any third persons. If promptly notified of any claim to the contrary, the Company shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Customer, with respect to all claims actions, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred by Customer, and shall (i) defend through litigation or obtain through negotiation the Customer's right to continue using the OnLine Service; (ii) rework the OnLine Service to make it non-infringing while preserving the original purpose, or (iii) replace the OnLine Service with functionally equivalent content.
- b. Third Party Information. Some features of the OnLine Service rely on data and information provided by third parties such as weather service providers and wholesale electricity markets. The Company has no control over the quality and timeliness of the needed third party information. As such, the Company is not responsible for any nonperformance of the OnLine Service due to problems related to the required third party information.
- c. Disclaimer. Except as provided in this Section, the Customer agrees that the OnLine Service is provided strictly on an "as is" and "as available" basis without any express or implied warranty, guarantee or other assurance of quality, accuracy, timeliness, completeness, conformity with specifications, reliability or functionality. THE COMPANY MAKES NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS

OR IMPLIED, AND DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

7. Limitation of Remedies & Liabilities. The following provisions are a material condition of this Agreement and reflect a fair allocation of risk:
 - a. Remedies. The Customer agrees that if the Company violates any warranty or other provision of this Agreement, and the Company determines that repair or other corrective action is not economically or technically feasible, the Company's total liability shall not exceed the amounts paid for the OnLine Service by the Customer during the previous twelve (12) months. The Customer agrees that legal remedies alone provide inadequate protection of intellectual property rights described in Section 4, Certain Proprietary Rights, and that, in addition to other relief, the Company may go to court. Liabilities. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SPECIFIED IN SECTION 6 OF THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT SHALL COMPANY BE LIABLE, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) OR OTHERWISE, FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOST SAVINGS OR PROFIT, LOST DATA, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION OR ATTORNEYS FEES EVEN IF NOTIFIED IN ADVANCE OF SUCH POSSIBILITY) INCURRED BY THE CUSTOMER, THE CUSTOMER'S CUSTOMERS OR ANY THIRD PARTY.
8. Indemnity. The Customer releases and discharges and shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the extent permitted by applicable law the Company and its representatives from and against any and all claims actions, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses including attorney's fees, costs and expenses made by persons other than the Customer for any matter arising out of or relating to the Customer's use of the OnLine Service provided under this Agreement. The Company releases and discharges and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Customer and its representatives from and against any and all claims actions, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses including attorney's fees, costs and expenses made by persons other than the Company for any matter arising out of or relating to the Company's creation, maintenance or management of the OnLine Service provided under this Agreement.
9. Term & Termination.
 - a. Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on _____ ("Effective Date") and continue for a period of twelve (12) months. The Agreement will then be automatically renewed thereafter for recurring twelve-month terms unless written termination notice is received from Customer at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the next annual term. Either Party may suspend or terminate this Agreement at any time without notice if the other Party breaches in a material manner any material provision and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after its receipt of written notice thereof.
 - b. Effect of Termination. Termination of this Agreement will terminate Customer's right to access or use the OnLine Service. Termination will have no effect on payment of amounts due under Section 3, Price & Payment, proprietary rights and obligations under Section 4, Certain Proprietary Rights, warranties or disclaimers under Section 6, Warranties, limitations under Section 7 Limitation of Remedies & Liabilities, and indemnifications under Section 8, Indemnity.
10. Confidentiality. Company shall treat all Customer's actual load data provided by Customer as confidential and not disclose it to any third parties who are not employees of the Company or Consultants working on related projects for the Company or use it for any other purpose. This obligation shall not apply to any load data that is obtained by Company from other parties than Customer free of any obligation of confidentiality. The Company will at all times use due diligence to safeguard and protect all such confidential information.
11. Choice of Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SUBSTANTIVE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE STATE OF TEXAS, AND ANY ACTION SHALL BE INITIATED AND MAINTAINED IN A FORUM OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION IN SUCH DESIGNATED STATE. ANY ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING BY THE CUSTOMER SHALL BE INITIATED WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR AFTER THE CAUSE OF ACTION AROSE, OR BE BARRED.
