INFORMATION/BACKGROUND

Denton Municipal Electric (“DME”) filed an application for a Full Transmission Cost of Service (“TCOS”) case with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (“PUCT”) November 1, 2021. PUCT ultimately ordered DME to perform a depreciation study of its assets. After DME performed the depreciation study it filed an amended application December 1, 2022. After the application was deemed administratively complete, a hearing for the application was scheduled for May 11, 2023. The PUCT issued their final order in October of 2023 and DME has been pursuing the appeal of this order since. November 13, 2024 the Travis County District Court heard both DME’s and the PUCT’s arguments related to the appeal and is expected to rule on the appeal in the upcoming months.
