DATE: March 25, 2026

SUBJECT

Receive a report, hold discussion, and take action on the appealed questions from the Police Sergeant Examination that was administered on January 17, 2026.

BACKGROUND

On January 17, 2026, the Police Department administered a promotional examination for the position of Police Sergeant. Per the Texas Local Government Code Chapter 143.034, eligible promotional candidates are entitled to review their promotional examination and answers, the examination grading, and the source material for the examination. If still dissatisfied, they may appeal to the Commission.

There are four (4) appeals over twenty (20) questions for the Commission to review from the promotional examination for Police Sergeant.

OPTIONS

Appeals to the Commission under the Local Rules and Regulations shall be limited to the quoted source material attributable to the referenced examination question. If the appeal does not include the basis and is not limited to the quoted source material, it will not be considered by the Commission.

Commissioners may sustain the answer key; disqualify the answer key (the Commission will designate/accept alternate answers); or disqualify the test question (the test question will not be included).
