

Exhibit 2 – Clinic Provider Biographies

Amena Hashmi, DO

Amena Hashmi, DO was born and raised in Chicago, IL. She graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Biology and minor in Women's Studies from the University of Illinois at Chicago. She attended Midwestern University/Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine, where she obtained her medical degree in 2008. She completed her residency training at UT Southwestern Family Medicine Program at Parkland Hospital from 2008 – 2011. Since December 2011, Dr. Hashmi has had the privilege to work at the City of Denton Employee Health Center. During her free time, she enjoys spending time with her husband and three kids, and cooking, reading and traveling.

Kim Gatlin, FNP

Kim Gatlin, FNP, is a Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner through the American Nurse Credentialing Center and American Association of Nurse Practitioners as well as Licensed as an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse through the Texas Board of Nursing.

She spent the majority of her working career in Mt. Pleasant, Texas, prior to moving to Denton in 2013. Kim earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Stephen F. Austin State University, a Master of Science in Nursing from the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston, then a Post Master's Degree as a Family Nurse Practitioner at the University of Texas at Tyler. She is a member of Sigma Theta Tau Honor Society, American Academy of Nurse Practitioners, American Nurses' Association, Texas Nurses' Association, and Texas Nurse Practitioners. She is married to Bruce, and they have two sons.

Kim believes in empowering patients to achieve health and wellness through education, and traditional medicine practices complimented by alternative medicine when appropriate.

Julie Brinzo, FNP

Julie Brinzo is a Family Nurse Practitioner, certified by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners. She received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 1990; her Master in Science from Texas Woman's University in 2005; and her Doctorate of Nursing Practice from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2016. Additionally, Julie completed a Master in Business Administration with a focus on Health Care Administration in 1999, from Wayland Baptist University. She is licensed as a Registered Nurse and Advanced Practice Registered Nurse in both Texas and Georgia.

Dr. Brinzo currently serves as the Program Coordinator for the Family Nurse Practitioner Program on the Denton campus at Texas Woman's University. Additionally, as an Assistant Clinical Professor, she teaches and manages the clinical courses for the FNP program. As a policy advocate, she is also responsible for the Health Policy and Health Promotion course for the Master-level graduate nursing students. She maintains an active clinical practice, working part-time for CareHere, assisting the City of Denton employees and their families in maintaining their health and wellbeing.

Dr. Brinzo's research interest, and the focus of her doctoral work, include the impact of yoga in the clinical management of chronic low back pain. Her clinical interests include health promotion, chronic low back pain and health maintenance. She is committed to providing outcome-driven, patient centered-care that reflects current evidence and best practices.