Chairman.

ATTEST: (Signed) J. W. Erwin,
City Secretary.

Commissioner Fitzgerald present.

Resolutions of thanks for the efficient work done by Commissioner Hawley were offered by Mayor McKenzie and Chairman Russell.

The Chair announced that the Commission was opened for organization for the ensuing term, and that nominations were in order for the election of a chairman.

Motion was made by Crain placing in nomination the name of J. N. Russell for the office of chairman for the ensuing term. No other nomination being made, the question was put by Mayor McKenzie, and resulted in the election of Mr. Russell to the office of chairman of the City Commission for the ensuing term, and it was so declared.

A proposition was submitted by W. M. Jagoe of the Public Construction Company, to apply about 4,000 gallons of asphalt topping on North Elm Street, at
