DATE: March 20, 2018

SUBJECT

Hold a public hearing regarding a draft ethics ordinance from attorney Alan Bojorquez.

BACKGROUND

On November 7, 2017 a charter election was held in which Proposition D was approved by the voters and required the City adopt an ethics ordinance in accordance with Texas law and with adherence to certain minimum standards. Shortly after the election the City Council directed staff to hire attorney Alan Bojorquez to assist in the development of an ethics ordinance.

Prior to commencing the drafting process the City Council completed two (2) hours of formal training on ethics laws and common components of municipal ethics policies in Texas. The City Council held a series of five (5) meetings from December 2017 to February 2018 to discuss various elements of an ethics ordinance and provide direction in the creation of an ethics ordinance. The first draft of an ethics ordinance, Draft "A", was presented to City Council on March 6, 2018. This draft is based on a broad sampling of more than nineteen (19) municipal ethics policies and over thirteen (13) hours of discussion with City Council. This ordinance would apply to the Mayor, City Council, Planning and Zoning, Zoning Board of Adjustment, department heads appointed by City Council, and vendors. Staff plans to bring forward an ethics policy to be adopted by City Council for City employees along with the ethics ordinance.

The March 20th public hearing was included at the request of City Council to provide citizens an opportunity to provide feedback on the current draft ethics ordinance. Additionally, citizens can provide comments through the website on the ethics ordinance development page and by emailing staff or City Council.

Included as Exhibit 2 is a second draft of the ethics ordinance, Draft "B", based on the feedback that staff has received during the prior City Council meetings.
