

Towing Ordinance Update

Addressing Current Challenges and Creating Comprehensive Solutions

Police Department
Deputy Chief Derek Bradford
Lieutenant Mike Rose
10/15/2024

Overview

- Current challenges
- Stakeholder communication
- Comprehensive solutions

Current Ordinance

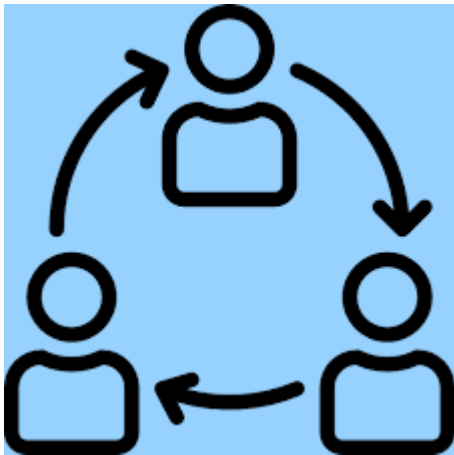

Identifying the Issues

- Outdated fee schedule
 - Amounts
 - Regulations
- Vendor accountability and city enforcement
- Citizen vulnerability

Collaborative Approach

- Meetings with local vendors
- Review of other municipal ordinances

Comprehensive Solutions

New Fee Schedule

- Fees updated
 - New administrative fee
- Surcharges limited
 - Process for the extraordinary
- Permits reclassified to match operations
- Recovery fees regulated

Officer Initiated Tows

- Impoundment for no insurance and no driver license
 - Officer shall verify insurance status
 - Officer discretion for impounds

Booting

- Booting added to options
 - Less expensive than a tow

New technology

Overview of Benefits

- Improved transparency
- Clear and consistent fee schedule
- Fair treatment of vehicle owners
- Provides funding source for program management

Next Steps

- Approve the ordinance
- Begin reviewing new applications
- Conduct inspections
- Public awareness campaign for booting

Questions?

